CLOSE GUARD AROUND GUNMEN.

The jury marched in at 2.37 o'clock, and they had scarcely taken their seats when the procession of prisoners and deputy sheriffs appeared. As the gunmen came down the narrow outside aisle by the barred windows, four policemen joined the deputy sheriffs and closed about them in a sort of hollow square. There were two officers to each prisoner as they were stopped at the bar and stared like so many dull and livid statues straight out before them. Not a feature of their faces stirred as they stood and waited for the black gowed Judge to mount upon Hoofs of P. A. Clark's Mount the bench and take his seat.

Clerk Penny broke the intense stillness him as Lefty.' The last in line is by turning to the jury box and polling Harry Horowitz, and he is known by the jury. After the twelfth man had answered to his name the clerk said: refer to him as 'Gyp.'" answered to his name the clerk said: Jurors, lok upon the defendants; de- REVIEW TESTIMONY AS TO fendants, look upon the jury." Then he read off a list of the gunmen's names and aliases, and turned again and read from a digest he had prepared of the testimony of both sides. First he mentioned the meeting in the Cafe Beaux to the foreman of the ury.

"Gentlemen," he asked, "have you ar-

"Gentlemen," he asked, "have you arrived upon a verdict? Do you find the defendants guilty or not guilty?"

The foreman paused for a moment while he swallowed hard. Then he spoke in a clear, ringing voice:
"Guilty of murder in the first degree as charged," he said.

The Zelig gangsters withstood the shock without a quiver; without so much as the fluttering of an eyelash. Like stone images they stood, staring before them with glazed and unblinking before them with glazed and unblinking them by the wrists and led them in a them by the wrists and led them in a the first discussion of the murder plot.

The Zelig gangsters withstood the shock without a quiver; without so much as the fluttering of an eyelash. Like stone images they stood, staring before them with glazed and unblinking the store them by the wrists and led them in a their favor by having his enemy put out of the way. This was the fluttering of the first discussion of the turder plot.

The Zelig gangsters withstood the shock without a quiver; without so much as the fluttering of an eyelash. Like stone images they stood, staring before them with glazed and unblinking them by the wrists and led them in a their favor by having his enemy put out of the way. This was the fluttering of an eyelash. Like stone images they stood, staring before them with glazed and unblinking the first discussion of the turder plot.

The Zelig gangsters withstood the said the second meeting in the Cafe Beaux Arts between "Jack" Rose sought to impress sought to impress sought to impress not the gand "Whitey" and "Lefty" and "Whitey" and "Lefty's" Caught in Barriers.

Excitement Alights Unhurt, Arts between "Jack" Rose sought to impress sought the framing to the first discussion of the sunder Paul.

Exhibitor Hart Alights Unhurt, Arts beaux and "Whitey" on May 14, when them by the wrists and led them in a the first discussion of the murder plot. huddled, stumbling procession from the From this meeting Justice Goff asked of the bugie.

Charles G. F. Wahle, counsel lustice Goff consented to and the proeedings were at an end, he tension sied effort to get a look at the convict-ed gangsters. The four prisoners were steirway leading up to the floor level on that floor it was necessary to the them out into the open corridor, it when they appeared within view the mob below in the rotunds there was a wild stampede in theirdirection. Friends yelled up to them and in the rush up the staircase fell over one another. Policemen were swept aside, and for a few minutes the building fairly shook with the bediam of noises. In the brief moment the gunmen application in the city of the defendants and their theory that they had been used as decoys by Rose and Webber and were merely innocent lookers-on at the murder. Concluding with his brief of the evidence on both sides, the Court said:

"Gentlemen, we have here the most remarkable situation in criminal annals in the city. The prose-most remarkable situation in criminal annals in the city. The prosecution, chiefly through the testimony of Jack Bose, charges that Eerman Bosenthal was murdered by these four defendants. In their turn the defendants say to Bose, "We admit that Eerman Bosenthal was murdered, but we didn't do it —you did. Eere you have the accused accusing the accusers. I will say again that the situation is unique in criminal annals."

Commenting upon the contention of the defense that Rose had snared the defendants in a wily trap to make it peared in view they were bunched close together. "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty" Louis had their arms about each other. They passed by the door of the matren's room and could hear the shrieks of their wives and "Dago" Frank's mother. Then they vanished into the out and got into the big automobile bus in which they rode to the Murray Hill Hotel to get their belongings. The crowd cheered the Jurors again and again. The entire Criminal Courts Butidin; was surounded by policemen, but thee was little for them to do as the crowds meltday are the commendable dismatch.

Justice Goff in his charge first spoks they would do him the series commendable dismatch.

collectively when that is possible," said Fustice God. "But when I speak of them separately, except in one case ("Dago Frank"), what I may applies to all. Only in one them at all separately."
"All four of these defendants, taken ollectively or separately, are presumed to be innocent until their guilt is estabed. The burden of proof is upon the People and the prosecution must Pursuing this line, Justice Goff delivered a blow to the defense.

"Gentlemen," he said, "you must consider that 'Whitey' said he was standing 45 feet away, under the glass shade over the doorway of the Cadillac. Do you think that at such a distance he could have recognized this strange man merely by the light from the flash of his pistol?"

The Court took was the flash of his pistol? stances under which those earlies ents were made. This applies to on brought to your attention." Justice Goff was referring to the driver of the murder car, who had enied to Commissioner Dougherty to the time of his arrest that he at the time of his arrest that he have been described in brief the state's contention that the defendants were employed by a band of conspirators in the sense of the murder.

The Court took up the probability that him an accomplice. The content of the murder witnesses to the scene of the murder. The content of the murder o were employed by a band of conspirators rform the murder. You have heard the evidence offered to support this theory," he said, "and you have also heard the evidence adRose and this stranger were going dressed by the defense to controvent around to the Metropole to commit that murder they would seek to bring four.

Induction and murder, and mand said:

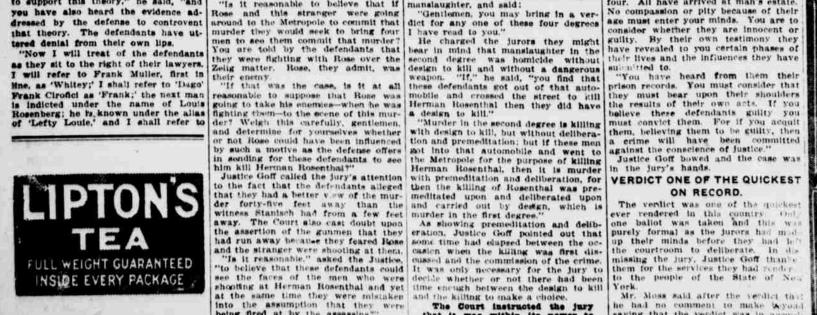

"Gentlemen, you may bring in a verder they would seek to bring four."

To have read to you."

Induction and murder, and mand said:

"Gentlemen, you may bring in a verder they would seek to bring four."

To compassion or pity because of their age must enter your minds. You are to consider whether they are innocent or consider whether they

THROWN RIDER HAS CLOSE CALL AT HORSE SHOW

Scrape Prostrate Owner's Head.

TWO FLUNG AT JUMPS.

Show to-day, with the judging of the

RESERVES MOTIONS TILL DATE OF SENTENCE.

testimony through its various stages to the consummation of the murder pletties, the conference in the Larayette to the conference in the Larayette to the larayette to the larayette to the death. The next rider but one follow-Lawyer Charles G. F. Wahls, counsel for the convicted prisoners, announced as his clients were led away that he would reserve any motions he had to make until the date of sentence was carried by the asked that the prisoners be temanded until to-morrow and that the late of sentence be fixed then. This lustice Goff consented to and the prolate of sentence be fixed then. This lustice Goff consented to and the prolate of sentence be fixed then. This lustice Goff consented to and the prolate of sentence be fixed then. This lustice Goff consented to and the prolate of sentence be fixed then. This lustice Goff consented to and the prolate of sentence be fixed then. This lustice Goff consented to and the prolate of sentence be fixed then. This lustice Goff consented to and the prolate of sentence be fixed then. This lustice Goff consented to and the prolate of sentence was chafing at the delay of the game in "failing to croak ling him, Paddy Hart, was thrown, and before finishing the course his horse, which of a Burns man, and finally, the oclate of sentence was chafing at the game in Jim. Paddy Hart, was thrown, and before finishing the course his horse, where Rosen time him plant ing him, Paddy Hart, was thrown, and before finishing the course his horse, where Rosen time had to constant where Rosen time had legal or the game in Jim. Paddy Hart, was thrown, and before finishing the course his horse, which of a Burns man, and, finally, the oclate of sentence was finished to the game in Jim. Paddy Hart, was thrown, and before finishing the course his horse, where Rosen time him plant in Jim. Paddy Hart, was thrown, and before finishing the course his horse, which can be a subject to the game in Jim. Paddy Hart, was thrown, and before finishing the course his horse, where Rosen time him plant in Jim. Paddy Hart, was thrown, and before finishing the course his horse, where Rosen time him plant in Jim. Paddy Hart, was thrown, and before finishing the course his horse as the course his horse as the plant the assembling of the gunmen in Webber's poker rooms and the drive to the scene of the assassination.

Justice Goff described the killing in detail and summarized the testimony of detail and summarized the testimony of SIG MOS TRIES TO SEE THE detail and summarized the testimony of the State's eye witnesses. "Stanisch, who saw "Whitey point a pistol at Romost a thousand men and women were milking about in the rotunda in a fren"Whitey surround Rosenthal with revolvers in their hands, and Luban, who volvers in their hands, and Luban, who hat saw Frank. Lefty and Gyp shooting but who failed to see 'Whitey.'"

Taking up the events subsequent to the see that th bit full of pluck and arose to his feet. He staggered until he was caugh, by a groom. Heno cartered lessurely to exit gate. the murder, the Court read from Jack Rose's testimony the State's evidence that Rose had met the gunmen and solemn duty—to deliver a fair. Impartial and just decision on the facts. The jury, said the Court, had been selected by both sides and they were equally bound to charge these defendants as the eliber side.

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"I will speak of the defendants collectively when that is possible."

"Gentlemen, it is for you to decide whether this alibit is reasonable ing to comment on more than half of the collectively when the speak of the desired to fulfill the plot of you boys are going to stay out booxing and I had better go uptown to see Jean Gordon.' But he had come downtown for the express purpose of meeting and I had better go uptown to see Jean Gordon.' But he had come downtown for the expression of the defendants when they went to meet Officers White and I had better go uptown to see Jean

"Gentlemen, it is for you to de-cide whether this alibi is reason-able and founded on fact or whether it is the result of some "In this case you have two fours—Rose, Webber, Vallon and Schepps and the four defendants. Two fours accusarrangement between these defend-

Justice Goff read the rules of law concerning the value of the testimony

The mysterious stranger was brought into the charge when the Judge read from the testimony of "Whitey" Lewis that "Whitey" had seen the flash of the stranger's pistol—which lit up his face. Pursuing this line, Justice Goff delivered a blow to the defense. mission of a crime. There must be such corroborating testimony to give value and force to the testimony of accomplices. I rule that Rose is an accomplice, and I rule that Valion is an accomplice, and I rule that Valion is an accomplice. I shall not rule that Schepps is an accomplice. There is no proof that he had knowledge of the facts of the murder plot before its commission. After the crime he had guilty knowledge, but that does not necessarily make decide whether or not there had been time enough between the design to kill and the killing to make a choice.

ASKS IF THEIR STORY ABOUT

The Court instructed the design to kill and the killing to make a choice.

The Court instructed the killing the jury, Justice Goff thanke them for the services they had render to the people of the State of No...

Mr. Moss said after

The Court instructed the jury that it was within its power to craviot one or all of the gunmen

Banker's Daughter Who Eloped With Lenox Church Organist

Cup, P. A. Clark, who had such a close call on Heno, won the cup, riding his an appeal and that an appeal should be taken. He spoke of Justice Goff's took the red ribbon with Willow King, and Mrs. Adam Beck took third prize.

Edward B. McLean, owner of the Washington Post and son of John R. McLean, founder and owner of the Cincinnati Enquirer, hotbled into the ring witnesses. cinnati Enquirer, hobbled into the ring witnesses. on crutches during the recess. He fol-lowed in the wake of Alvin Wildfire, the

Mr. Hart, when thrown by Nicholas, escaped without a scratch. When the horse fell with his leg caught in the bars of the second barrier, the rider jumped nimbly to the ground.

One woman appeared in this event. She was Mrs. Adam Beck. She looked charming on her husband's horse, Frontenac. Mr. Beck is a member of the Canadian Parliament. Lieut. Labouchere, who won the International contest, with records better than 2.30, the blue ribbon was awarded to famous Mona Dunn's four mounts, but didn't do anything startling.

The big event of to-night and one of the greatest features of the Horse Show Frank Palmer, a professional, came the greatest features of the Horse Show Frank Palmer, a professional, came will be the exhibition and drill of the second. Brother Spier has a record of Mounted Traffic Squad of the New York 2.18. Gall Constantine of the Glenmore Police Department. Stables, owned by Robert Goelet and In the exciting contest for the Maclay driven by him got the yellow ribbon.

ounded by policemen, but thee was little for them to do as the crowds meitile for them to do as the crowds meited away a few minutes after the excitement had subsided.

Justice Goff in his charge first spoke of the commendable dispatch with which the evidence in the case had been presented. Then he reminded the jurors that theirs was the last word, the final solemn duty—to deliver a fair. Impartial and just decision on the facts. The jury.

Alley you are asked to believe." he said,
"You are asked to believe." he said,
"There asked to believe." he said, portant for Frank to go with Rose to meet Becker's men, or was it more impottant that he should suddenly change but the should suddenly change suit of their suspicions that he had had something to do with the framing of something to do with the should suddenly change his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because
his mind and go then to his flat because his mind and go then to his flat becau

ing to comment on more than half of them on the ground that he had covered he subject-matter fully in his charge. The Court refused to charge that the jury found that all of the defend-ants had not been present at the scene of the murder then all four defendants must be acquitted. The Court also re-fused to charge that the defendants had not been in any way connected with Becker.
"I will not charge that," said Justice

Goff, "because there is evidence to show that the defendants were connected with the person (Becker) so mentioned."

When Justice Goff had finished reading from Mr. Wahle's requests to charge, Mr. Wahle took exception to the Court's refusal to comply with all of the seventy-seven requests. TALKS OF AGE AND RECORDS

OF THE GUNMEN. Justice Goff had not ended his discourse, however. He had something to say concerning the age and records of the gunnen.

"You have heard them referred to as Justice Goff defined the four degrees of homicide, first and second degree ty-seven. The two others are twenty-murder, and first and second degree ty-seven. The two others are twenty-four. All have arrived at man's estate. No compassion or pity because of their No compassion or pity because of their new tenter your minds. You are to he had no comment to make Ayaas saying that the verdict was in accord ance with the evidence. Mr. Wable

HALT BIG BATTLE EIGHT HOURS TO BURY THE DEAD

(Continued from First Page.)

the Adriatic port of San Glovanni di Medua by the Montenegrins on Saturday according to the correspondent of he Reichspost at Scutari The correspondent telegraphs that the Furkish troops evacuated San Giovanni di Medua on the arrival of a Mon an Austrian courier from Scutari was fired upon by the Montenegrin troops. When the Montenegrin commander, Gen. Martinovitch arrived at San Giovanni di Medua on Sunday he ordered the seizure of the Austrian mail bags lying there and destined for Scutari.

The Montenegrin General then told his troops, according to the correspon-dent, to remove all the goods on board the Austrian Lloyd magazine vessel anchored in the port and he had all court.

Cassidy, who is twenty-seven years old the other Austrian craft lying there searched. The Montenegrin royal and the "black sheep" of a very respectable family living at No. 16 State street. yacht arrived in port as though t

Economy and Quality are Combined in

HOENIX

HOSE

tween the Bulgarian and Turkish arn tween the Bulgarian and Turkish armies had taken place at Chatalja arrived here this afternoon. It consists merely of the laconic sentence:

"The day before yesterday and yesterday the Bulgarian army engaged the Turks in battle on the advanced points of the Chatalja lines with a view to preparing the ground for its further operations."

This was issued subsequently to the announcement of the appointment of plempotentiaries to conduct peace negotiations with the Ottoman Government. Whether it means that "further operations" will be proceeded with as soon as the eighth hour of the armistice agreed to for the burial of the dead ex-The Ottoman government is deter-mined not to consider peace until the

Balkan allies submit conditions compat-ible with the honor and dignity of Turkey according to a special despatch from Constantinople.

It is stated that the Bulgarian terms suggest that Turkey retain the provinces of Adrianople and Kirk-Killsseh and ask that the Porte agree to Bulgaria and Servia autonomizing Western Macedonta and Albania and concede the Porte of Dedeaghatch on the Aegean Sea to Bulgaria and Crete and other islands to Greece.

WARNING TO SERVIA BY AUSTRIAN CABINET.

LONDON, Nov. 19 .- The occupation of Alessio by the combined Servian and Montenegrin armies, giving them another foothold on the Adriatic Sea, is considered in diplomatic circles likely to add fuel to the flames of the Austro-Servian dispute which have again blazed up in a critical way.

"We are in favor of peace, but not of peace at any price. We cannot stand everything."

The we will make it plain to the light at all, but their party organizations.

"I hope we will make it plain to the light to The Austro-Hungarian Cabinet has sent a sharp note to the Servian Gov-ernment at Belgrade demanding a precise reply to all the questions at issue. According to the Zeit the note was distinctly threatening in tone and it mands should Servia's answer again be

Some papers assert that Servia is Diplomatic circles do not exclude the possibility that the Servians, relying on the sympathy of the Slavs in Austria-Hungary and on the support of her Balkan allies, may challenge an

TURKS LOST 10,000 IN MONASTIR BATTLE. Federal Officers After Others Ac-

BELGRADE, Servia, Nov. 19.-The Purkish casualties were enormous during the three days' desperate fighting has begun already.

ALLEGED MURDERER OF HABERDASHER PUT ON TRIAL IN BROOKLYN

accused of murdering Walter Meseritz in his haberdashery store, No. 779 Flat- ty-five witnesses have been summoned bush avenue, at noon on Feb. 26, was placed on trial to-day before Justice Aspinall in the Brooklyn Supreme demonstrative possession for King Brooklyn, was caught pawning safety razors and wearing ties which, the po-The despatch concludes that the lice say, were stolen from the store Turkish troops intend to attack the after the shooting.

Montenegrins at San Glovanni di Medua to-day. LONDON, Nov. 18.—The first official intimation sent out by the Bulgarian Government at Sofia that fighting be-BULL MOOSE WON'T, and dirt that are in the air you breathe If your nostrils are closed the germs

ARE YOUR

NOSTRILS

If your nostrils are closed the germs of disease collect in your nasal passages and set up an irritation. This is called catarrh. The irritation produces a discharge. The discharge is loaded with germs. Your nostrils being clogged up, you cannot blow out the ischarge in the natural way. The annoyance of choked-up nostrils causes you to frethem in any way you can. You find that you can draw the discharge backward into your throat. This is called hawking, and is a disgusting, unnatural and unsafe practice, and gives the and unsafe practice, and gives the breath a bad odor.

disease start from a closed, dry or dis-charging nostril. Here is the reason-Your nostrils are supplied with perfec-air filters. These structures strain all healthy the disease germs are caught and entangled in the natural secretions of the nose, as flies are caught on stick paper. Once caught in the nostrils, th

My specialty is freeing clogged nostrils, treating dealness and head noises and healing sore placein the breathing tubes. I have spent thirty yearstudying the best way to do this. I can free thmostrils without cutting away the bones of the nose, thus leaving to the nostrils those important, attractures that were created by nature to strain dust and germs out of the sir.

Clogged Nostrils Cured

ARE YOU

GOING DEAF?

CLOGGED?

(Continued from First Page.)

Pimothy L. Woodruff of Brooklyn was Resolved: That no union, coalition or fusion be made by the National Progressive party of the State of tion or unit thereof with any other party, party organization or unit, without the consent and approval of the State Committee or the Executive Committee of said State Committee of the National Progressive pary, and that no action looking toward such coalition, fusion or union be taken without like consent. The following sentiments uttered by Roosevelt were vigorously ap-

"AS A MAN IN THE RANKS." COLONEL SWAYS 'EM.

"And, gentlemen, I now stand in the ranks with my fellow Progressives, and ranks with my fellow Progressives, and what I am saying must be taken as a take. If your nostrils are open and bit of advice from a man in the ranks. But, speaking as a man in the ranks, I most earnestly hope that in no Legislature assembled in which the Progres-sives have a representation will there be Emperor Francis-Joseph is reported to any submission to either of the old any submission to either of the old are dry and sore the disease germs are parties, should they desire to combine not caught at all, but pass right on to their party organizations.
"I hope we will make it plain to the people that it is up to the old parties to combine against us, and that our representatives in the State Legislaenter into any deal of any degree for personal advantage with either of the "Vigorous military measures will old parties. Let them do that work, give emphasis to the diplomatic deto the Senate or anything else. "What arrangements they coose, let them make those arrangements them-selves, between themselves, and let us stand aloof, keeping unflinchingly to the faith that is in us."

EIGHT MORE WARRANTS IN COUNTRY-WIDE SWINDLE.

cused of Brokerage Frauds-Inquiry On at Buffalo.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 19.-Miss Clara prior to the fall of Monastir before the attack of the Servian troops. They are reported to have reached a total of employed by the firm of Minyard, Kessler & Malcolm and who is said to have Great quantities of modern field guns, given the information upon which the rifles and supplies fell into the hands of indictments were returned here against the Servians.

The Servian Government considers that in different parts of the country veswith the fall of Monastir the work of the Servian armies in Macedonia can be regarded as completed. In exactly one month they have swent the Turks form month they have swept the Turks from is to investigate a branch of the altered booty worth many millions. King Peter of Servia will make a triumphal entry into Monastir in a few days. The > BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 19 .- A Federal Grand Jury investigation into the work-ings of the alleged "get rich quick" swindle in which seven arrests in vari-ous cities were made yesterday, was inaugurated here to-day by Donald Bain and William Palmer, Assistant United States Attorneys of Cincinnati. Twenduring one of the fights at the Chatal-

DR. J. C. McCOY ja front, Gen. Mahmoud Mukhtar Pasha had a bullet extracted from his A. M. to 6 P. M. Sundays, 10 A. M. to 12 neen

Dress Right On 15 doses 10c Credit

No Money Down Just $1 a Week

you ought to come to either of our two stores. No strings to our credit plan. We believe in you and give you sasy confidential credit terms on Clothes for your entire family enox clothing 2274 3' Av. 7 W. 14" St.

213 Flatiron Buildin Broadway and 23d St., New York Blackburn's

CascaRoyal-Pills A civilized physic.

FFOULKE.—Tuesday, Nov. 12. at Tueson.
Aris., CHARLES M. FFOULKE, 2d.
Funeral services at St. John's Church.
Washington, D. C., Tuesday, Nov. 19.
at 2 P. M.

INFORMATION WANTED.

REWARD FOR INFORMATION

HELP WANTED-MALE. OPFICE BOY WANTED by large importing bouse, preferably Italian extraction; must be bright and have good references. Call 145 Frankilin at.

LOST, FOUND AND REWARDS.

LOST Russian sable stole, Monday evening on subway between 72d and 50th sts.; liberal reward. Return to Dr. Wm. Pack, 167 W. 71st

PENNY A POUND PROFIT

Special for Tuesday, the 19th Special for Wednesday, 20th CHOCOLATE NUT CARAMELS; 25c value classifier. 10c ASSORTED FRUIT PLAVORED 10c Mels; 25c value classifier. 10c Tuesday's Offering NUT STUFFED DATES:
40c value elsewhere,
POUND BOX

Wednesday's Offering MOLASSES CHEWING KISSES: 24c

Milk Chocolate Covered

Dairies

Dairy butter and cream blended scientifically and then moulded in a shell of our famous Premium Milk Chocolate. S9C The specified weight in each insta 21c Park Row and Cortlandt street stores open every evening until 11 o'clock.

All our stores open Saturday evening until 11 o'clock. Solotes SA BARGLAY OF PARK ROW & MASSAN AND SOLOTES SO 4Z NASSAU ST into the assumption that they were being fired at by the assassins." Justice Goff then discussed "Dago concerning what occurred? I will ask you to consider that fact without further comment?

ing each other and each four accusing the other four of being the actual mur-

ROSE IS REASONABLE.

Men's, 50c and 75c pair. Women's, 75c, $1.00, $1.25 pair.

Mens 50¢ Women's 75¢

PHCENIX DOUBLE-KNIT SILK HOSE FOR WINTER WEAR

folt, shimmering, luxurious pure-dye thread silk lined with lisle for warmth an entirely new Phoenix idea that enables you to wear stylish ik hose throughout the cold weather. Unreservedly guaranteed. ther Phoenix All-Silk Hose, light, medium and heavy weights.

Your dealer has them or can get them for you. TEOENIX KNITTING WORKS-Phone, Stuyvesant 799-45 East 17th St.